

HOME HAPPENINGS.

—Council meeting next Monday night.

—A son was born Sunday evening to Mr. and Mrs. Ira Christman.

—The M. E. Church ladies are arranging to serve their usual Thanksgiving dinner.

—This appears to be an opportune time for Canfield to secure five miles of good roads.

—Carpenters have completed most of their work in the basement of the new Methodist church.

—Canfield Wednesday night had the first political meeting in a long time and is not likely to have another in many months.

—The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church spent Wednesday most enjoyably with Mrs. Wm. Geis of New Buffalo.

—The Missionary society of the Presbyterian church held an enjoyable meeting at the home of Mrs. A. S. Lynn, northeast of the village, Tuesday afternoon.

—An enjoyable box social held at the school house east of the village last Saturday night netted quite a sum which will be used to purchase books for the school library.

—Rev. W. B. Alexander, former pastor of the Christian church of this place, sailed from New York Wednesday for India where he will engage in missionary work.

—Mahoning County Pomona grange will meet with Dublin grange in College Chapel Saturday at 10 a. m. Officers will be elected and the proposed taxation amendment discussed.

—The Builders' Aid of the M. E. Church will give a Halloween social at Town Hall Saturday evening. There will be a pleasing program and refreshments. Expense, 15 cents. Everybody invited.

—Mrs. Abraham Meyer, who lately moved into the Joshua Kyle residence, east of the village, was on Monday kicked in the breast by a colt she attempted to dress in the yard. Two ribs were broken.

—Supt. Robert Taylor reports some small crops on the county infirmity farm this year. Twenty-eight acres yielded 1,438 bushels of oats, 515 bushels of wheat were threshed and 1,500 bushels of potatoes were grown.

—Next Wednesday the premiums awarded at the recent county fair will be paid at town hall. At the same time the annual election of five directors will be held. All residents of the county who purchased membership tickets during the fair are entitled to vote.

—During the past week several gentlemen have been here to secure options on lands known to be underlain with fire clay. Several tracts have been optioned and it is expected that within 30 days tests of the clay will be made. Indications are that Canfield will soon have clay industries.

—Don't miss the Halloween social in College Chapel this (Friday) evening. The two literary societies are making strenuous efforts to raise funds for the college library and it is hoped that the young people will be encouraged in their endeavor. Refreshments will be served and the charge will be only 15 cents.

—Attorney J. H. C. Lyon of Youngstown, a former Normalist and instructor in the Canfield public schools, will discuss the proposed taxation amendment in College Chapel Saturday evening. This is a question of much importance to every taxpayer and the Dispatch hopes Mr. Lyon may have a crowded house.

—The remains of Miss Kate Deemer, which were placed in the receiving vault at the cemetery soon after her death in Boardman township last December, were removed to the new Deemer family vault last Friday afternoon. Short services conducted by Rev. W. S. Rowe were held at the vault.

—Canfield electors will have an opportunity to say at the polls next Tuesday whether or not they favor the building of good roads to connect with those leading to the county seat. The cost of improving the five miles of road necessary will approximate $40,000, but covered by a bond issue running 15 years the burden should not be a heavy one.

—Two tickets will be presented at the election for member of the board of county fair managers next Wednesday. One will bear the names of the well-known old members of the board: C. T. Agnew, J. S. Price, A. Burton, R. S. Hawkins, E. E. Forney, C. C. Bowman. The other the names of J. S. Price, A. Burton, Frank Agnew, C. P. Mott, R. W. Dickson, H. F. Yeager.

—The Canfield football team went to Warren last Saturday afternoon and played a game with the Athletics, losing by a score of 5 to 0. A fumble early in the first half gave the Athletics an opportunity to make a touchdown. After that neither team was able to get within striking distance of the goal so evenly were they matched. The Canfield eleven is strong but needs practice.

—Last Friday evening the Canfield band went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore, south of the village, and gave Mr. and Mrs. Phil Wetmore, recently married, a serenade. Mr. Wetmore has been a member of the organization for quite a number of years and gave the boys a most cordial welcome. The evening was a most pleasurable one for all. Excellent refreshments were served.

—The Ministerial Association of Salem and vicinity, to which Rev. R. E. Pugh has belonged for several years, met at the Presbyterian parsonage Monday afternoon. Rev. J. P. Kirkbride of Columbiana read a paper on the "Religious Element in the Discovery of America," and after a general discussion of the subject the meeting adjourned to the dining room and at the invitation of Mrs. Pugh discussed dinner. There were present besides the local pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Swan, Rev. Lang and Reynolds of Salem, Grimm and Rinsard of Leetonia and Kirkbride of Columbiana.

—Rev. Robert E. Pugh was installed pastor of the Canfield Presbyterian church Tuesday evening. Mr. Pugh was ordained by the Presbytery of Mahoning in the spring of 1899 and installed pastor of the church at Hubbard where he remained until September, 1904, when he accepted a call to the church at Lebanon. Some months since he was called to the Canfield church, followed by the installation as stated. Tuesday evening Rev. W. L. Swan of Salem moderated the meeting, presided at the service and proposed the constitutional questions. Rev. W. B. Hudson of Youngstown charged the pastor and Rev. F. P. Reinhold of Warren charged the congregation. At the close of the services the ladies of the church served refreshments.

—Last Friday a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harrington.

—A largely attended republican meeting was held in town hall Wednesday night. The speakers were S. S. Conroy, S. D. L. Jackson and R. C. Huey of Youngstown.

—On account of a conflicting meeting the Men's Club will not hold its regular monthly session until Friday evening, Nov. 13. Rev. Mr. Reinhold of Warren will deliver an address at that time.

—Canfield people generally will learn with regret that Prof. F. B. Sawvel, who has been an instructor in the Normal College here for several years, recently received a call to a chair in Thiel college at Greenville, Pa., and that he has decided to accept same, probably taking up his new work early in December.

Death of Mrs. Carrie Clay Detimore. Mrs. Charles Detimore of Canton died very unexpectedly Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Detimore came here Monday afternoon from Canton to visit the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clay. As Mrs. Detimore desired to take a train at Niles the same evening he and his wife started to drive to Mineral Ridge, she expecting to bring the rig back and continue her visit here. When near the residence of Dr. Schuurmanberger, 3 1/2 miles north of Canfield, Mr. Detimore noticed that his wife, who had been in good spirits, apparently fainted. He immediately left the rig to secure a glass of water to revive her. Mrs. Wm. Smith accompanied him back and to their horror they found that Mrs. Detimore was summoned, but of course he could do nothing.

The deceased had long been a sufferer from Bright's disease and to this cause her death is attributed. She was born in Canfield and would have been 40 years old Dec. 13, next. She was married to Charles Detimore five years ago and for some time had resided in Canton. Besides her husband and parents she leaves six brothers and two sisters.

Funeral services held from the Christian church, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock were conducted by Rev. D. D. Burt and largely attended. Interment in the family lot in the village cemetery.

WILL B. JONES

Popular County Auditor and Republican Candidate for Re-election.

On Tuesday, Nov. 3, each voter will have an opportunity to elect a vote for national, state and county officials.

I will be your candidate for County Auditor on the Republican ticket for a second term. During my first term it has been my aim and ambition to serve the people honestly and conscientiously.

Very R. respectfully,

WILL B. JONES

Candidate for County Auditor second term.

In an editorial Oct. 21st, the Youngstown Telegram said to W. B. Jones, the county auditor. Ask a critic and he will not give you a satisfactory answer. Make an investigation and you will discover that Mr. Jones has made enemies. He has made them because he has been absolutely fearless in the discharge of his duties. He has acted along the line that he was elected by the people and that his responsibility is to the people. The greatest corporation in the county has received no more favors than the owner of the modest home. To refuse an endorsement to an official of this sort would be a blunder that would prove to be disastrous to the welfare of the community. The man who refuses to vote for Jones refuses to give an endorsement to one of the most energetic and fearless men who ever occupied an office in the court house.

During the time that Auditor Jones was trying to induce the several taxing boards that the rate was clear out of reason, there appeared in the Youngstown Vindicator the following: "More power to Auditor Will B. Jones in his efforts to reduce the tax levy."

EDITOR DISPATCH:—In justice to Auditor Will B. Jones will you kindly publish the following:

Having noticed some reports regarding the position of County Auditor Jones on the tax levy question we believe in all justice and fairness to Mr. Jones that a statement should be made. As is a matter of record we worked at the session of the Board of Education for a reduction of the levy from the figures advocated by the majority. We were defeated and the levy was certified to the auditor, it providing for 12 mills. Auditor Jones did take the matter up with the result that he persuaded two other members of the board to vote with us at a meeting on Sept. 7 for a reconsideration. It was reconsidered, Dr. Bennett and Dr. Brown voting with us for a reduction from 12 to 10 mills. This is all a matter of record and cannot be disputed. The credit for bringing about this reduction does not belong to us but it does belong to County Auditor Jones and it is a matter of justice that every taxpayer is made aware of that fact.

L. E. GUESS.

MIKE J. SMOULKS,

Members of the Board of Education, Youngstown, O.

CHARLES T. AGNEW

Republican Candidate for County Commissioner.

Charles T. Agnew, a member of the board of County Commissioners and one of the republicans ticket for re-election, solicits the support of the voters of the county. He has at all times performed duties of the office honestly and faithfully and if re-elected will continue on that line, guarding the interests of the taxpayers to the full extent of his ability.

Elias Jenkins Endorses Taxation Amendment.

I heartily endorse the three proposed amendments to our State constitution to be voted upon this fall. Our present system of taxation punishes the honest, rewards the dishonest, and lowers our standard of morality. As a laboring man and a citizen, I feel it my duty to recommend to my fellow citizens to vote in favor of the taxation amendment.

S. E. SLAGLE

Democratic Candidate for Infirmary Director—Well Qualified.

S. E. Slagle is one of the three very excellent selections made by the Democratic party to stand as its candidates for infirmary directors. Mr. Slagle was born and reared in Mahoning county and now resides in Boardman township. He is a farmer and machine agent. His long experience has splendidly fitted him for the office for which he has been named. All voters who seek the honest administration of the affairs of the infirmary should cast a ballot for Mr. Slagle. He bears an excellent reputation throughout the county and is deserving the support of all honest men.

TEMPTATION TO THE BIBULOUS.

Method of Italian Cafes Puts Premium on Deep Drinking.

Drink, as usual, was the subject of debate.

"I went into a cafe in Bologna last month," said a Chicagoan. "Buongiorno," I said, in my best Italian. "Vino."

"The pretty waitress brought me a flask of vino. Then she asked if I would drink by the glass or hour. I opened my eyes wide. I shook my head in bewilderment. Laughing, she explained:

"Competition is so great in the cafes of Bologna that we have to adopt all sorts of novelties to attract trade. The latest is drinking by the hour. In nearly all our cafes now you can drink by the glass or hour, as pleases you."

"Our vin ordinaire can be drunk at ten cents an hour. There is profit in that, no matter how great the drinker's capacity may be. Vin ordinaire, you know, costs nothing."

"For beer we charge 50 cents an hour. We make little on beer. Brandy is one dollar an hour."

"I laughed."

"In what condition," I asked, "do these contract drinkers walk home?"

"The girl laughed, too."

"They don't walk," she said. "They are carried."

HIS TERRIFIC WASTE OF TIME.

Awful Shock to Man Who for Years Had Written Extra Letter.

"Perhaps as severe a small shock as I ever got," said a man who is careful of his time, "struck me the other day when I discovered that for many years I had been misspelling a certain word by the introduction of an additional letter. It wasn't the misspelling of the word that disturbed me, it was the fact that misspelling it as I had done I had wasted so much time in writing it. But now I have begun to get back the time lost."

"I frequently use, a word from which one letter can be eliminated without impairing its significance or its appeal to the eye, and from that word in writing I am now omitting that one letter."

"As I figure it, in about 17 years, by leaving out a letter from this word, I shall gain about as much time as I have lost by adding a letter to that other word. I shall square the account, and then I shall feel easier."

"Time is the most valuable thing we have, and I hate to waste it."

Blue Stockings.

About 1871 it was the fashion for several ladies to gather at evening assemblies, where they might participate in conversation with literary and ingenious men. One of the most eminent members of these societies, when they first commenced, was Mr. Sullivan (grandson of the bishop), whose dress was remarkably grave with the exception of the blue stockings he always wore. His conversation was so excellent that his absence was greatly felt, whereon they would say that they could do nothing without "Blue-stockings," and thus the title was established. A French foreigner translated the words to the French and called Bas-Bleu a gathering of brilliant friends who meet to talk, giving no thought of dress.
